Foreword

Education is a preparation for complete living. It is the development of the mind, the heart, and the soul which animates, unites, and guides us in our quest for happiness, and in our associations with our fellowmen. Our Alma Mater has afforded us this threefold training.

It is our hope that the ideals and principles we have cherished during our four years of high school will be an inspiration to us in the future, as we read the pages of the 1948 Mount.

Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

We Dedicate

To Reverend Mother Mary Columba, whose zeal for Religion and whose loving interest in youth has made possible for us, in the establishing of Mount Saint Joseph Academy, the privileges of a Catholic High School education,

"Eternal Rest, Grant

the 1948 Mount

and to our beloved classmate, Elizabeth Mullen, whose tragic death brought deep sorrow to our hearts. Betty was one of the most popular and active members of our class.

Unto Them, O Lord!"

To The Faculty

You are the ones who have seen us through these four important years of high school. Despite our misdemeanors and lack of co-operation, at times, you have ever shown an attitude of understanding, good will, and friendship.

It has been pleasant for us to realize that you, our teachers, were even more concerned about our welfare than we were. So it is with sincere affection and deepest respect that we say "au-revoir" to you, who are responsible in forming and developing our ideals and ambitions.

Graduates of '48: During your stay at the Academy you have contributed to the life of the school. Many activities at the Mount have been made richer and better through your efforts in the classroom, in athletics, in music, and in the social life of the Academy. You feel today that you could have done better and achieved more.

But now you enter a bigger field of living, and our fondest hope and prayer is that you, each member of this class, will be a real contributor throughout your life to the parish and the community in which you live. May you be Christian leaders, loyal always to your God and your country inspired by the Christian principles which you have learned at Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

The class of 1948 bids you welcome to our Class Night Exercises. We are happy to see so many of you here this evening to show your interest in us even to the end of our high school days. This interest has never failed us.

When we first came to the Mount, four years ago, we looked upon commencement as an event too far distant to claim any consideration. However, four years have passed all too rapidly. We can all testify to the truth of this, as memories of joyous days recall friendships we have made, and happy associations that can never be forgotten.

We realize that the privileges that have been ours are the result of many sacrifices and tender solicitude on the part of others. Encouragement and advice have ever been available to us in solving the problems of life. All of these advantages have been made possible to us through your interest, dear parents, and that of our Reverend Principal, our Sisters, and all our teachers.

So it is with a spirit of sincere gratitude that we welcome you tonight and pledge to you our fidelity to Mt. St. Joseph principles, ever remembering our motto: "Better faithful than famous."

"M. S. J., OUR ALMA MATER"

(School Song)

Forward and onward where the Green and White is flying,
Come then and join us with cheerful voices singing.
Gallantly, merrily, marching we follow,
As students gather when the school bell calls.
From every teacher, warm is the greeting;
New ones are coming, old friends are meeting;
Gaily our banner over us waving
Tells us that our school can never be forgot.

2.

Upward, onward to the goal—M. S. J., our hearts you hold.
Everywhere are sounds of mirth, showing
God's love and care are o'er the earth;
Three cheers for M. S. J.! Three cheers for M. S. J.!
Our hearts we give, our love we pledge,
To Alma Mater, loved Alma Mater;
Upward, onward, to the goal—M. S. J., our hearts you hold;
Hearts more true can ne'er be met,
Truly our school we shall ne'er forget.

The hour now has come,
Dear classmates one and all,
Our voices will resound no more
In Mt. St. Joseph's Halls,
But in friendship's recollections,
And in memories fond and dear,
Our Alma Mater's praises,
We'll sing throughout the years.

We'll ne'er forget the lessons,
We've learned at M. S. J.,
As we go forth to serve mankind,
Each in his special way;
With Christ Our King as Leader,
Mary's Immaculate Heart, our shield,
And St. Joseph's gentle guidance,
To the foe we'll never yield.

TOURNAMENT TALK

Class History

Four years ago we made our first official appearance as pupils of Mt. St. Joseph Academy. Timid and confused Freshmen, we found it difficult to even remember the rooms in which we were to report for classes. In a short time, however, we felt quite at home. Three years passed quickly—and then we assumed the responsibilities of seniors!

At the close of our junior year the boys who were chosen to represent Mt. St. Joseph in the activities of Boys' State held at Norwich University were: William Hamilton, William Timbers, Richard DelBianco, Edward Senecal, Francis Nugent, Bernard Ward and Richard Sanders. At Girls' State, held the same week at Green Mountain Junior College, Montpelier, Nancy O'Rourke, Louise Coccia, Natalie Corey, and Carolyn Burke were the Mt. St. Joseph representatives.

On September 8, school reopened with a High Mass, at which the entire student body attended. We welcomed two new members, graduates of Mt. St. Joseph, to the faculty this year, Mr. Walter Moore, who came in September and Mr. Robert Rounds who replaced Mr. Somma whose resignation to accept another position was regretted by all of us. At our first senior meeting we elected Gerald McCue, Class President; Therese Cannon, Vice President; Doris Fitzgerald, Secretary; and Edward Senecal, Treasurer. Elected to the Student Council were: Raymond Flynn, Janice Murphy, Mary Lou Norton, Alfonso Cioffi, Monica Foster, Bernard Ward, Francis Kelly, Therese LeFrancois, and Arthur Napolitano.

The Clarion staff with Eileen Abbott as Editor-in-Chief and Charlotte Bresnahan, Business Manager published the first issue of our school paper. Members of the staff attended the Annual Scholastic Press Meet in Burlington in October and later sponsored a "Snow Ball Dance." The highlight of the Clarion year was the winning of the "Youth Page Contest" sponsored by "Our Sunday Visitor."

Our class contributed six judges to the Rutland City Bicycle Court: Kathleen Leary, Joan Goodness, Elizabeth Mullen, Carolyn Burke, Francis Nugent, and William Hamilton.

October 29 brought the Freshman Reception, the first social event of the year. The Freshmen proved to be "courageous" guests of the seniors. Eileen Thompson, Francis Aquistapace, Emma Grace, Wayne Fox, Mary Kay LaVenture, and Francis Lee were chosen as a special committee for this affair.

The girls' Sodality elected officers at this time: Eileen Abbott, President; Therese Cannon, Vice President; Mary Kay LaVenture, Secretary; Joan Goodness, Treasurer. These girls represented the Mount at the Sodality convention held in Barre.

The Commerce Club named Frances Burke, President; Louise Coccia, Vice President; Marie Harrison, Secretary; and Frank Ragosta, Treasurer; Jennie Cotrupi, Chairman. A one-act play presented by the members was one of the many activities of the Club.

The ceremony of Enthronement of the Sacred Heart was held in October at which time the student body was dedicated to the Sacred Heart and a campaign was organized to help restore Christ to the family and to the world.

Coaches Barry Branon and Sal Somma led the '47 gridiron team through a successful season of 5 wins and 3 losses. Alfonso Cioffi was captain and Edward Senecal, manager. Captain Cioffi was rechosen as All-State quarterback. Robert Brothers, Vincent Leliukas, Ettore Valleroli, John Creed, Angelo Romano and Jerry Miglorie received honorable mention. The Senior Council sponsored dances on the evenings of the games.

November 25, 26, 27 the boys of the Academy presented the Annual Minstrel to three capacity crowds. Gerald McCue as interlocutor; John Terenzini, Andrew Williams and Edward Shoro, senior soloists; Thomas Nichols, Joseph Rice, Richard Esposito, Bernard Ward, Anthony Miglorie and Alfonso Cioffi as endmen, and a talented chorus contributed to its success.

Congratulations were in order again when Arlene Bonitz won first prize in the American Heritage Essay Contest, and Vernon Creed was chosen one of four delegates from Vermont to attend the National 4-H Convention to be held at Washington, D. C. this month.

William Hamilton was appointed Editor-in-Chief and William Timbers Business Manager of "The Mount," our yearbook. We kept photographers busy for some weeks as a first step toward compiling our annual.

The Basketball Team captained by Francis (Mickey) Kelly completed an outstanding record in the Southern Vermont Tournament. Alfonso Cioffi was placed on the All-Tournament Team and the entire team played splendid ball. John Terenzini was their efficient manager.

In February our hearts were saddened by the death of our beloved classmate Elizabeth Mullen, whose cheerful disposition made her a favorite with all of us.

Under the direction of Reverend Joseph F. Scannell, C.S.S.R., we spent the first three days of Holy Week in a very instructive and enjoyable retreat.

Nancy O'Rourke and William Timbers won the leading roles in the senior play "Peg O' My Heart" presented April 11, 13, 14. Others in the cast who displayed excellent talent were: Henry Blicarz, Edward Regan, Edward Senecal, Marie Harrison, Carolyn Burke, Andrew Williams and Monica Foster.

Our congratulations were extended to Kathleen Leary, Valedictorian, and William Hamilton, Salutatorian of our class for their high scholastic standings.

The Mount baseball team, under the mentorship of Coach Rounds, has had a successful season.

We took part in the May Day Procession, one of the most cherished traditions at the Academy. Eileen Abbott crowned the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Patricia Burke, Therese LaFrancois, and Patricia McLellan presented flowers to Our Blessed Mother in the name of the senior class. The senior girls were guests of the Alumnae at the annual May Breakfast.

At this time we received the disappointing news of Coach Branon's resignation. We are sorry that Mt. St. Joseph is losing such a fine coach and competent teacher.

Representing the Academy in the All-State Glee Chorus at Burlington were: Elena Menduni, Theresa Wysolmerski, Maureen O'Shea, Mary Flory, Lorraine Moulton, Arthur Westcot, Bernard Ward, John Clark and Robert Levins; All-State Band: Ettore Valleroli, Lloyd Piggrem, Rodney Gallo, Richard Sanders, and Edward O'Connell; All-State Orchestra: Milah Dwight, Maureen Dansreau, and Robert Dupaw. Joan Watterlund, John Terenzini, and Elena Menduni took part in the annual Music Graduation program.

Our senior retreat which will ever be a cherished memory was given June 2, 3, 4.

Commencement activities claimed our attention with the coming of June. The senior ball was one of the most enjoyable of these events. On Friday, June 11, we will attend Mass in the school chapel which will be followed by a class breakfast in the academy dining-hall. Graduation Exercises will be held at St. Peter's Church Friday evening, with His Excellency, the Most Reverend Bishop Ryan, presiding.

As we are about to close our history at the Mount, we pay a tribute of appreciation to Reverend Father Fitzsimons, to our Sisters, to Coach Branon, Mr. Moore, and Mr. Rounds for the friendship and kindly interest they have manifested toward us.

CAROLYN BURKE,
Historian.

Class Prophecy

One June day as I was working in my rose garden a strong wind came up suddenly, stripping the flowers of their velvety petals. As I gazed disconsolately at the ruins about me, I gathered a handful of the lovely petals. To my amazement I found inscribed on them a little story of the whereabouts of my classmates of 1948:

JOANNE BURKE is teaching English to the Polish children at Bellows Falls High.

TOM RYAN, a well known chemist, is splitting the atom on Mendon Mountain.

EILEEN THOMPSON has finally given up driving a taxi and is now flying for the celebrated National Air Transport.

PAT BURKE is a nurse who formulated a new gargle for singers, especially tenors.

CAPTAIN FUNZIE CIOFFI

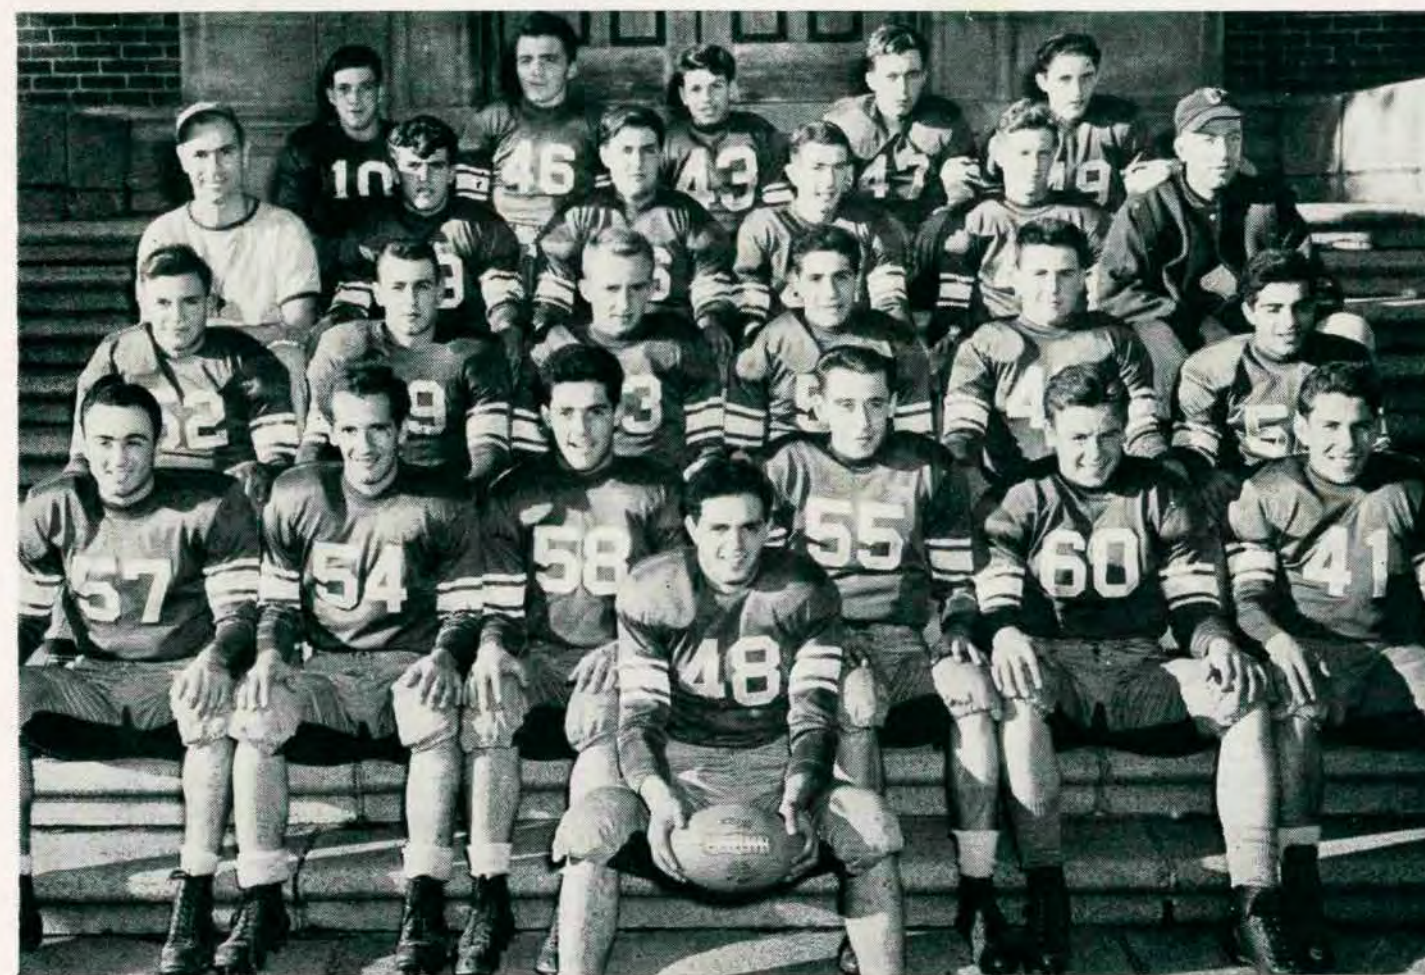

MANAGER EDWARD SENEAL

"Funzie" Cioffi congratulates Ralph Muscatello, Captain of 1948 squad.

Football

(L. to R.) 1st Row: A. Napolitano, E. Valleroli, R. Muscatello, A. Cioffi, Captain; S. Kantorski, T. Mulcahy, V. Leluikas.
2nd Row: E. Zambon, J. Terenzini, J. Creed, A. Romano, W. O'Rourke, J. Rice.
3rd Row: Asst. Coach Somma, A. Westcot, A. Vitagliano, R. Brothers, F. Kelly, Coach Branon.

Eager to retain its state title, the Green Wave opened the season with such veterans as Captain Funzie Cioffi, Stan Kantorski, Ettore Valleroli, All-State Center, and Art Napolitano to share the limelight.

The Orange and Black eleven of Middlebury were the first to fall victims to the Green. After struggling through a scoreless first half, the Mounties roared back on touchdowns by "Muscy" Muscatello, and Funzie Cioffi on top by a 12-0 score.

A favored Granville team moved into St. Peter's Field and Coaches Branon and Somma, with an injury-riddled team, set about to find a combination to stop the expected onslaught. To everyone's surprise, the boys from Granville were able to score but one touchdown. The Acads put up a good fight, but bowed to their opponents to the tune of 7-0.

The Green Wave machine invaded Bellows Falls, and top performance was shown by our line, especially on the defense. In the second period, Funzie Cioffi scored from the 9 yard line for the first touchdown and minutes later threw a 42 yard pass to the eager hands of Stan Kantorski for the second counter. The attempt for the extra point was converted by Leluikas. In the second half, a Cioffi to Kantorski pass was good for the third touchdown, as the final score stood 19-0.

Rolling over a big Spaulding team by an impressive 13-0 score, the Acads again showed their ability to come through in that all-important second half. A quick pass from Cioffi to Leluikas was good for one tally and in the fourth period, Bernardo smashed over for another marker.

The Parochials really bombarded Burr and Burton Seminary by a wide 32-14 margin. On the opening kick-off, Captain Funzie Cioffi, receiving the ball on his 10 yard stripe, scampered up the right sidelines behind beautiful blocking, reversed his field, confusing his opponents and zoomed into the end zone with a 90 yard run neatly tucked away for the Green. But the Bulldogs bounced back and led at the quarter 7-6. From here on, the Wave was the master, as two touchdowns by Leluikas, and one each by Muscatello and "Chuck" Pockette salted away the game for the Green and White.

One of the year's most publicized games was played on the Springfield gridiron, as two well-drilled teams battled each other in a grimly, hard-fought contest. The Acads scored first on a flat pass from "Mickey" Kelly to Leluikas. Shortly afterwards misfortune struck, as blocking-back Art Napolitano broke his right leg. After tallying in the second period, the Cosmos came back to score two more touchdowns on an injury-riddled Mountie team. The game finished with the locals on the short end of a 20-6 score.

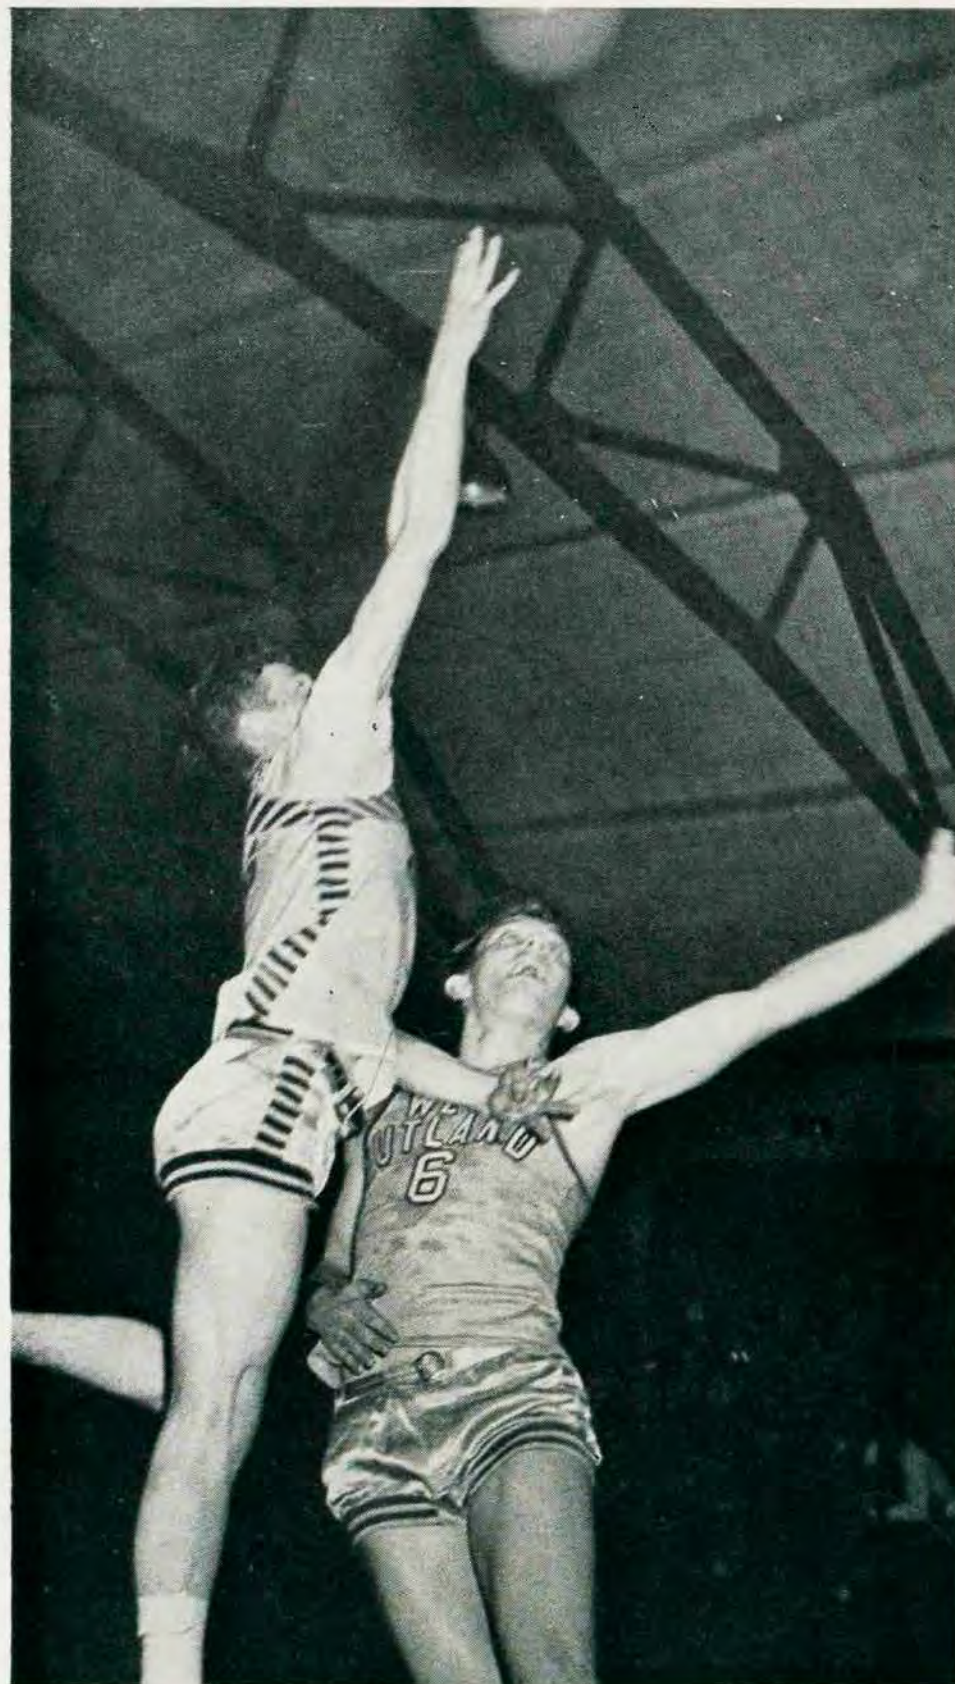

The Green and White bounced back, overpowering St. Mary's of St. Albans by a 20-6 verdict. With the score knotted at 6, the Wave roared back in the second half with "Mundie" Leluikas grabbing the laurels on two touchdowns.

Hoping for a great performance over their city rival, the Acads took the field on Armistice Day for their annual clash, after staging one of the liveliest pep rallies of the year the previous night. The Raiders went for a touchdown after pounding our line relentlessly in the first half. The opening of the third quarter found a rejuvenated band of Mounties marching all the way down the field to the Raiders' 4 yard line, only to have a pass intercepted. Rutland sustained another drive that clinched the game for them, 12 to 0. Our boys played their hearts out and anyone who saw the game can truthfully back this statement.

Thus ended another chapter in the glories of football at the Mount. Much credit is due to our two very fine coaches, Mr. Branon and Mr. Somma, in again coming up with a team distinguished not only for skill in action, but also for the splendid sportsmanship shown during the entire season.

Basketball

2nd Row: Manager J. Terenzini, P. Cioffi, R. Pelchant, J. Nolan, J. Hurley, G. McCue, Coach Branon.

Minus the services of Barrie Byrne, capable guard, for the entire 1947-48 season, the Green and White played their first game at Middlebury, and emerged victors by a 34-22 score. Bellows Free Academy opened the home season for the Acads and were overwhelmed, 57-36. The Branonmen also posted successive victories over St. Michael's of Brattleboro, and Middlebury, by scores of 51-36, and 32-23, respectively.

The Mounties motored to Windsor for their first Southern Vermont League game. The Wave came from behind and solved the Windsor zone defense in the second half, which finally found them on the long end, 44-33. Mundie Leluikas was the big gun with 14 points. Johnny Bloomer and Company came into the Armory for their first encounter with the Mounties and handed the latter a sound 39-31 defeat. The Hartford Midgents fell before the Green, 38-26, on the former's home court. The Birskeymen were host to the Green and White machine and managed to squeeze past the Acads, 35-33. Andy Natowicz's Blue and White of Brattleboro were really spanked by the Mounties by a score of 58-34 in their encounter at the Armory. The Rutland Raiders were the Mounties' next opponents. In this contest the Green Wave in their passwork, shooting, etc., stunned everyone in the Armory. At one time the Mounties led by 19 big points and finally came out with a 50-39 victory. There were no individual stars, as each player gave a very splendid showing for himself.

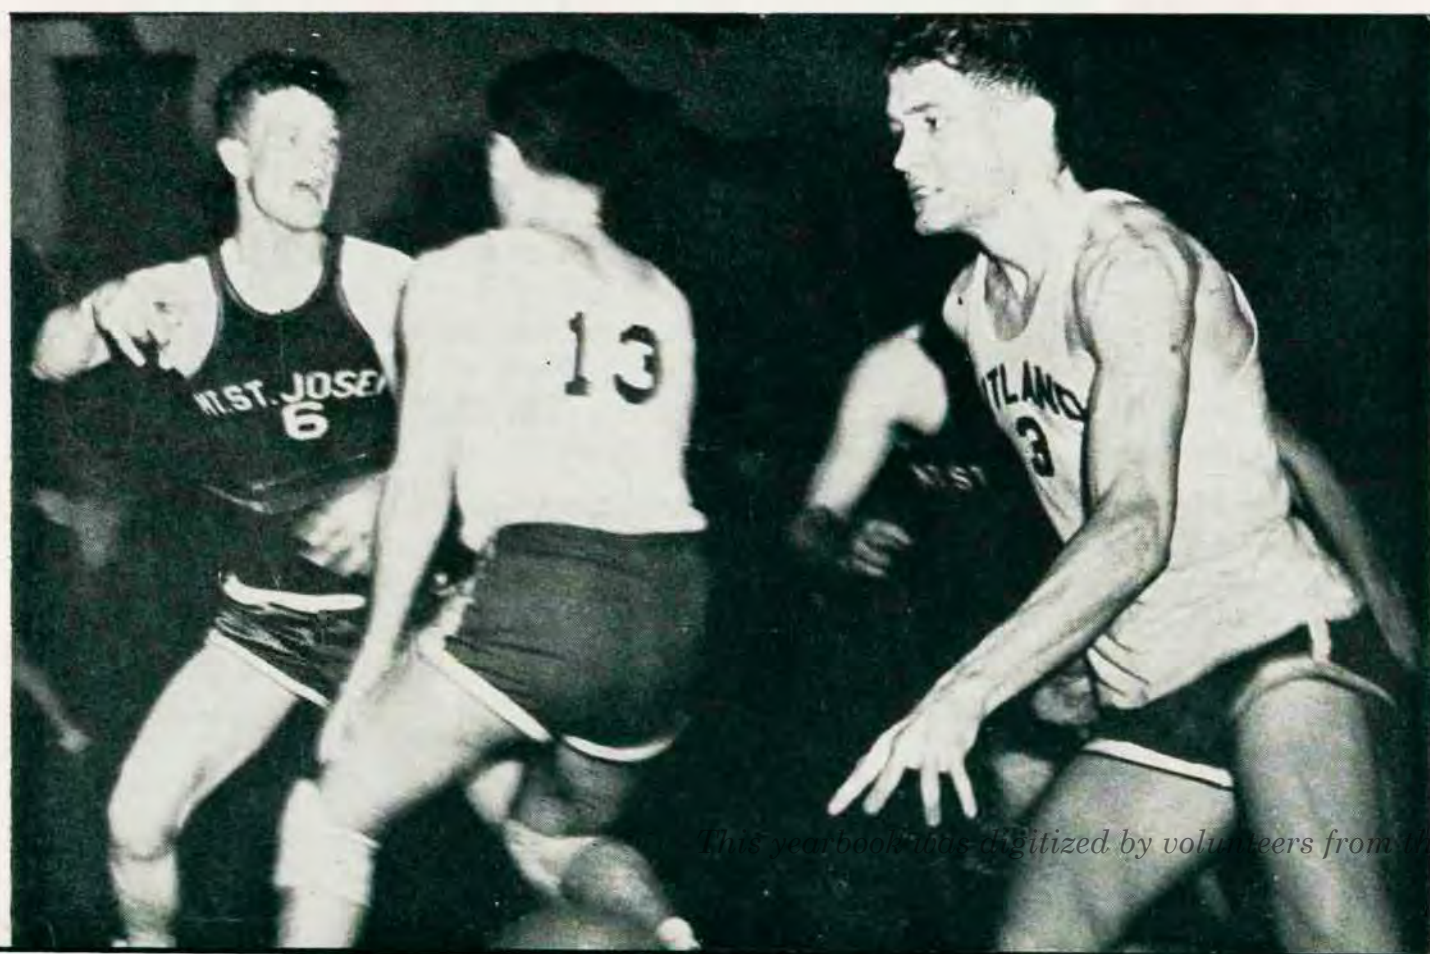

The Purple of Bellows Falls were riddled, 38-30 at the local court. The Green and White ventured to West Side to avenge an earlier loss, but led by Johnny Bloomer, the Hincheymen literally pulverized the Mounties by a surprising score of 43-23. Funzie Cioffi led the scoring with 12 points. Mundie Leliukas went to town by drilling through 23 points as the "Men from the Mount" devoured the Hartford Midgets 49-33. They next edged the Springfield Cosmopolitans in a hair-raising game, 38-37. Friday the 13th, was really unlucky for the Acads as they bowed to the Organgrinders of Brattleboro, 47-42.

The Branonmen lost a heart-breaker to the Redmen of Rutland at the Armory by a 38-37 score. With a minute and ten seconds remaining the Acads saw a 5 point lead diminish and finally result in defeat in the three minutes overtime. "Funzie" Cioffi was the high point man, as he disturbed the twines for 18 points. The Acads bounced back from their defeat at the hands of Rutland, by eking out a win over a determined Bellows Falls Five, 45-44. The Yellow Jackets of Windsor invaded the Armory to seal the lid on the S. V. L. and handed the Mounties a 44-37 defeat. "Funzie" Cioffi's 15 points sparked the cause.

The Green and White's opposition for the Southern Vermont Tournament was found to be the powerful Bennington Catamount quintet. Trailing at half-time 22-12, the Green Wave came back to match the "Cats" basket for basket, but bowed to them eventually to a 35-25 count. Jack Hurley, capable freshman, led the scoring attack with 7 points followed by Mundie Leliukas' 6.

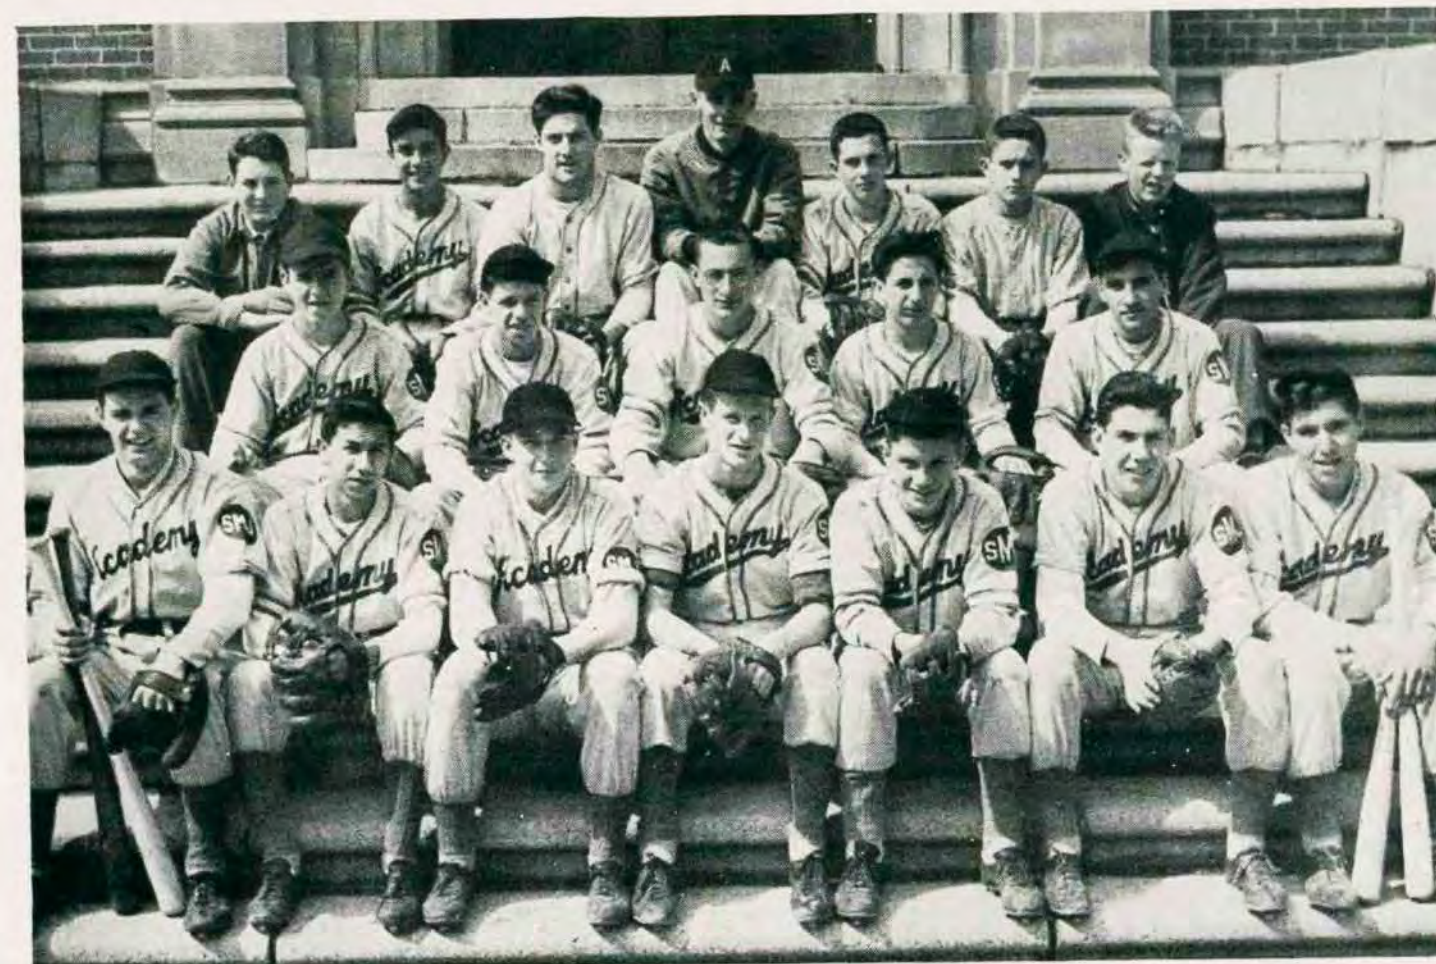

This concluded another basketball season which saw "Funzie" Cioffi selected for the Class A All-Tournament Team, and the Acads winning 12 ballgames, while dropping 7.

Our hats are off to Coach Barry Branon for a job well done in turning out a team of which we can all be justly proud.

With Coach Rounds now handling the reins as baseball mentor, thirty diamond aspirants answered his initial practice call for the 1948 campaign. Starting from scratch, with the exception of three returning veterans namely, "Mickey" Kelly, "Funzie" Cioffi and diminutive "Red" Orzel, Coach Rounds finally came up with a suitable combination for his diamond picture.

As the "Mount" goes to press, the season is more than half completed. Dropping their first game to a strong Alumni Team 7 to 3, the Acads bounced back to tag a 6 to 3 defeat on a visiting Middlebury "9."

The Mounties next traveled to Amsterdam, N. Y. where they met one of the best schoolboy pitchers in upper New York State. "Vic" McMullen of St. Mary's High School hurled a no-hit no-run game against the Green Wave, as our boys bowed by a 3 to 0 verdict.

Rutland Junior College was the next opponent on the Acads' schedule. The Saints were turned back 3 to 2, with "Mickey" Kelly turning in a brilliant job on the slab.

As the season rolls along, Coach Rounds and his charges view the future with optimism, and particularly look forward to their city series with the Red Raiders.
